It would probably be better to call me when you are about to impanel instead of email since I most likely will be at my lab bench and not my desk, plus I share a computer with Rebecca Pontes, so she may be using the computer then. Please feel free to call me this morning if you want if you have any questions. Also, when I went to court in Springfield last week, there was a little bit of construction or something on I-91 that slowed traffic down (only one lane was open), so it may take me a little bit longer to get there than normal. Thanks.

Sonja; I will e-mail you once we begin to impanel. Is that better than coming here and waiting? I assume you can get here in an hour. John Bryson.

Yes. What time do you mean by late? Should I go to the ADA's office, or meet you in/at a specific court room? Thanks.
